FROM : Chief, Orientation Faculty, IS

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #10, 5 - 11 March 1958

1. Summary:

1. Intelligence Orientation #19 is proceeding according to schedule, with lectures during the final week covering Collection, Support and Operations.

2. We are drafting a tentative 18 hour course for possible use in an Orientation Course for Commo personnel.

2. Significant Items:

Nothing to report.

3. Other Activities:A. Intelligence Orientation

1. Intelligence Orientation #19 is now in its second week. We are following the same general pattern established several months ago, which calls for units covering Collection, Support and Operations during the final week.

2. The Support Exhibit is scheduled for 12 March from 2:00 to 4:00 and the Intelligence Products Exhibit for 13 March from 9:30 to 12:00. [ ] reports that a revised OO/Contacts chart is ready for presentation. 25

B. Special Projects

1. [ ] is drafting a tentative schedule of an 18 hour course requested by the Chief, Signal Center, for his personnel. Although OTR has not yet accepted a definite commitment we are preparing a schedule for possible use this Spring. 25

2. [ ] of WH Division called on [ ] this week to advise and assist in the development of the cover phase of a current operational plan. This plan is an outgrowth of a project for which [ ] was responsible during its active phase. 25

4. At the request of the Chief, Intelligence School [ ] to determine whether any revisions could be made in the long-term schedule (1958-59) which would permit the Ops. Support course to begin directly after each I. O. course. Several minor changes were made which would allow for better synchronization with the Ops. Support and would not affect the JOT or I.T. course schedule.
